- Local Boards play a critical role in shaping the workforce system in their region. Their power comes from both federal law (WIOA) and their unique ability to bring together business, education, and community leaders. The five areas of strength;
 - Strategic Leadership-aligning of resources, labor market driven decisions
 - Oversight & Accountability-manage, oversee federal workforce funds, establish local workforce policies
 - Business & Employer Engagement-employer driven decisions (51% private sector)
 - Convening Power-the hub connecting businesses, educators, service providers, & community organizations
 - Innovation & Flexibility- leveraged resources
 - Resulting in a direct impact to Jobseekers & Employers throughout the region. Local Boards are the bridge between economic development, education, and employment.

certification from Arkansas, but local employers were looking for candidates with more recent experience. When she learned about the opportunity for training through the WIOA program, she was excited to take a new direction. She had always been interested in getting her CDL and becoming a truck driver — a goal she shared with her husband, as they planned to team drive in the future. Dana enrolled in the Basic Truck Driver Training course at MTC Truck Driver Training, located at the Cape Girardeau Career and Technology Center, and began classes on August 4, 2025. She was thrilled when she passed her CDL permit test. While attending training, WIOA provided transportation support services to help her stay on track. On August 28, 2025, Dana successfully passed her CDL Class A pre-trip inspection and driving test on her first attempt. Shortly after, she accepted a driver position with FedEx, starting on September 9, 2025, earning $23 per hour. Dana's determination, along with the support from the WIOA program, helped her quickly achieve her goal of starting a new career in trucking.
